

BURLINGTON FREE PRESS, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1852.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO'S.
BOSTON
BUSINESS DIRECTORY,
APRIL, 1852.

The second listing, collected by S. M. Pettengill, Boston Advertising Agents. Not all the names and addresses which are given in the first list are repeated in this edition, as it is most advantageously circulated throughout the United States, to take advantage and subscriptions from their localities.

THE FOLLOWING IS A LIST OF MANY OF THE MOST SUBSTANTIAL AND HONORABLE BUSINESS FIRMS IN BOSTON.—MERCHANTS AND OTHER VISITORS TO THE CITY, WILL FIND THE DIRECTORY OF GREAT SERVICE TO THEM, AND THEY ARE ADVISED TO TAKE IT WITH THEM.

FLORENCE WHITE.

An Unchangeable Gloss White Paint, for houses of honor, stores, ships, steamers, carriages, which is the most durable and economical paint yet known, being unaffected by sunshines or rains, or which is the cause of paint changing and turning yellow. It is also cleanseable at dirt and water, and will not wash away.

It has been in use for three years, and has proved its permanence beyond a doubt. The proprietor has full confidence in its remaining white and good condition at least four times as long as common white paint. It has a steady, strong, high finish, and is coming into general use for fine white painting.

People are "notified against imposters practised by some persons to sell an imitation under the name of Florence, which is not true, and which is not safe." I begin to have the best article, and invented. I do not wish to prevent others from producing a competitor, but only ask that each stand on its own merits.

The genuine article is ready prepared for use, can always be had at stores in next parlors of 10 and 20 lbs. each, at the liquid to thin it with, which requires about one gallon to 10 lbs. of the white.

The first cost of this article, compared with white lead paint, is found to be less, but, however, but little more, and it stands well, and is not liable to crack.

Directions for its use accompany the article.

Sold in quantity by the proprietor.

STRAW BONNETS.

The subscriber is now prepared to show his numerous customers a large assortment of

STRAW AND FANCY BONNETS.

Of the latest Paris shapes. Bonnets of my own manufacture having taken precedence over all others in style and workmanship, in Boston, N. York, and Philadelphia, for the past 14 years. They are extremely light, and are made of the finest materials—
the trimming they will not wash away.

Own made, and a few of European manufacture, are the only Bonnets I sell. Prices are as low as at any other establishment.
